SAMMIE'S ITALIAN

On the banks of Shoal Creek, Sammie's is the most fun you can have on Sixth Street these days. A little taste of old Italy in downtown Austin, Sammie's celebrates the great red sauce tradition—drawing inspiration from legendary Italian-American restaurants from Brooklyn to Los Angeles.

This location has long been part of Austin's story. In 1939, Mildred Joseph—matriarch of the Joseph family—opened the original Sammie's Drive-In right here. Decades later, it became home to the beloved Hut's Hamburgers, where many of the same booths and floors still remain, carrying forward the unbeatable Austin spirit.

Through the longtime friendship between Sammie Joseph III and Larry McGuire, who first met at Austin High, MML Hospitality brought Sammie's to life once again in a new way—continuing the story of this historic property with the Joseph family at its heart. Mildred's legacy lives on in our semi-private dining space, fittingly named Mildred's Room, and in the spirit of community that fills the restaurant. The walls are lined with framed photos of Sammie's regulars, including generations of the Joseph family, preserving the deep roots and personal stories that make Sammie's feel like home.
